

(a) joint-trained grouping

one network, trained together on one detector's features - grouping tied to its detector; swapping the detector means retraining the grouping

(b) modular grouping (this work) trained in this work, frozen at inference external pre-trained detector no learned parameters